Dr. Sims Offers Free Exam with New Machine

Dr. L. D. Sims, chiropractor at 260 South Pacific avenue, Redondo Beach, will give health examinations with the assistance of a hemovimeter machine for three days, today, tomorrow and Saturday.

This machine, he says, tells the cause of ailments, reveals how bad the trouble is, locates the physical disturbance and provides data to tell the sick what to do for themselves. Dr. Sims emphasizes that this is a free demonstration and those who take advantage of his invitation are under no obligations.

Five Patients Enter Hospital This Week

Five new patients were received at Torrance Memorial hospital during the past week. Curtis Bierman, Wilmington, entered Tuesday for an appendectomy; August Eklund, 30 of 2266 1/2 Torrance boulevard, applied Saturday for medical treatment; Mrs. Henrietta Grinold, 246 East Carson, underwent an operation last Thursday; Mrs. Alice Gooden, 2106 Lomita boulevard, Lomita, was received Sunday for surgery; and Adolph Theek, Alhambra, entered last Thursday for medical care.

Sydney Has Lumber Surplus - SYDNEY (U.P.)—About 35,000,000 feet of surplus Oregon timber in huge logs are floating in Sydney harbor, causing concern.

30 New Trees Ripped Out

One of the worst examples of malicious mischief noted here in recent months was reported to police Monday by the foreman of a crew of state highway workers. Night patrol officers were instructed to keep a sharp lookout during their nocturnal rippings up newly-planted trees. The foreman told police that 23 palm trees and seven Monterey pines, recently set out by the state in the vicinity of Hollywood Riviera, had been wantonly pulled—not dug out—from the street parkings by vandals.

This destruction is being done at night, the foreman said, because the state crew has been working along the highway every day since the heavy rains early in March.

Child's Chance for Screen Fame Reads Like Reel Fiction

(Continued from Page 1-A) bovitz" called and left him a message of greeting. Pasternak returned the call almost immediately and shortly afterwards Mrs. Koeh, her husband and his brother, Sol Koeh, owner of the Torrance Paint store, and his wife were fast friends of the Hollywood man. Recently they learned he was seeking a youngster to play in his famed protégé's new picture and the Koehs—both Joe and Sol and their wives—at once suggested Sharlie Moore for a test-audition.

They knew the little girl's talents—she is a singer, dancer, dramatic artist and speaks German, French and Spanish and is now acquiring a mastery of Hungarian—would be easily recognized. The Koehs' opinion was confirmed with almost Sharlie's first line before the microphone and first foot of film. Pasternak was delighted with the child's personality. Result: a contract.

Has Brilliant Mind And so, Sharlie is on her way to become a movie star. As yet she knows nothing of the tinsel and glitter of Hollywood fame but she does know the capitals of every state in the Union and she'll rattle them off as fast as she can pronounce the name of the state. She has exceptional dramatic talent and her impersonations have long delighted her friends here.

Torrance can well watch the progress of that young lady's screen career... it won't be long before those who have succumbed to her real little girl charm will be saying "and I knew her when..."

Hospital Head Back to Duty

April 1 found Miss Esther Z. Maxwell garbed once more in her white linen and returned to her duties as superintendent of Torrance Memorial hospital after an absence of four months. Miss Maxwell was joyously welcomed back to the institution by the staff.

She spent half of her leave of absence in a hospital receiving treatment for an internal disorder and the remainder was devoted to recuperation at Balboa. She appears very much improved and is now giving full attention to her work.

Popular Lomita Matron Succumbs

The sudden death (heart-failure) last night of Mrs. Martha Jones, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herman Lind, 2661 Normandie avenue, Lomita, general hours after a Caesarian operation that delivered her of a baby boy at the California hospital in Los Angeles came as a distinct shock to many Lomitans. Mrs. Jones, wife of Francis Jones, and mother of an 18-month-old son, Francis M. Jr., lived in that community many years and graduated from San Pedro high school in 1921. She was very popular there and at the California hospital where she was a nurse.

Mrs. Jones is also survived by a brother, Phillip of Los Angeles, and two sisters, Mrs. Dorothea Lind of Lomita and Mrs. Ruth Baillie of Colorado. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Anglican Lutheran church, 14th and Burlington, Los Angeles.

for selection of the site, he declared, rests with the Board of Water and Power commissioners who favor the Chavez Ravine (pesthouse) location. Efforts will be made to force a special election on alternative sites.

ROAD GROUP MAPS WORK

Immediate improvement and widening of Hawthorne avenue and La Brea boulevard is the first objective of the Southwest District Highways association, it was decided last Thursday night at a meeting of city and civic leaders from Torrance and eight surrounding communities at the Palms Verdes Country club.

Opening of the Hollywood Turf club southeast of Inglewood June 10 will seriously complicate traffic problems in adjoining communities, members of the association were told, according to Leonard Young, assistant city engineer here, who is secretary of the group. Representatives of the County Regional Planning commission spoke on the problems arising out of the Santa Anita race track opening and its effect on adjacent cities.

Fear of "bottle-necking" traffic at various points toward the Inglewood track was expressed and current work to avoid that danger, such as sign posting and traffic routing, was discussed. The next meeting of the highways group will be held in May at the Palms Verdes Country club.

Those present at last week's session from Torrance were Mayor William Tolson, Councilman James Hitechuck, City Attorney John E. McCall, Chamber Secretary L. J. Gilmeister, DeKalb Spurlin and Young.

BABY STILLBORN

A still-born baby was delivered to Mrs. Clara McNeese, 1824 Arlington avenue, last Friday. Mrs. McNeese is reported to be making a good recovery. Her husband is a local steel worker.
